

FRS 102: HOW TO GET IT RIGHT

Wednesday 26 March 2014

13:30 to 16:30 hrs

Ramside Hall Hotel, Carrville, Durham DH1 1TD

Introduction

UK GAAP is about to go through its biggest change for over 20 years. Mandatory adoption commences from 1 January 2015. Are you confident you understand how your clients' accounts will change? Do your clients understand the potential consequences of those changes?

Who should attend? This course is aimed at anyone who will be preparing accounts under the new regime, but particularly qualified staff and principals in practice.

Content:

The course content will broadly encompass:

- An overview of the new regime and the impact on presentation generally;
- An analysis of the "big ticket" changes under FRS 102, including
- Options on transition – policy decisions to be made, including:
- "Devil in the detail" – some of the trickier aspects of FRS 102, including;
- Presenting and explaining first time adoption – planning points for the first FRS 102 accounts
- Practical consequences of the new regime, including dividend policy, banking arrangements, capital structure

Stephanie Henshaw is a regular speaker for us at Ramside on audit, accounts and money laundering issues. She is Senior Technical Consultant for MacIntyre Hudson Advisory Services Limited.

Lunch from the Hotel Carvery is included for those booking this course and the 'Company Re-organisation – a practical accounting guide' session in the morning.
