Annual Dinner with Nick Hewer

17 October 2014 18:45 for 19:30
Civic Centre, Newcastle upon Tyne

Andrew Jackson, President of Northern Society of Chartered Accountants, is delighted to invite you to our annual business networking dinner.

Look forward to a special evening this October - you don't have to be a chartered accountant to enjoy the evening with us - our dinner is open to all. So bring along your colleagues, clients and guests to enjoy a memorable evening and a superb networking opportunity.

We are delighted to announce that our guest speakers this year will be Arthur Bailey, ICAEW President and Nick Hewer.

Nick is the host of Channel 4's Countdown and Lord Sugar's right-hand man on BBC's The Apprentice. His facial expressions, borne of wonderfully dry wit and a lifetime's business experience, tell you exactly what he thinks of the contestants.

Nick's PR firm was selected to represent Amstrad in the eighties and soon became responsible for media handling of all Alan Sugar's business and charitable activities. After selling his business Nick withdrew to his house in south west France until Alan Sugar persuaded Nick to take an onscreen role on The Apprentice. Nick has since amassed a string of credits from Have I Got News For You to Countdown.
